HEN TRACKS

- The Fightin' Blue Hens looks to extend its five-game winning streak when it takes on another tough road test against 16th-ranked Stony Brook. Delaware is currently one of just nine FCS teams with active winning streaks of at least five games.

- The five-game win streak is the longest since the start of the 2010 season when Delaware began the season with seven straight victories.

- The current win streak marks the first time since 2004 that the Blue Hens have won five straight conference games. The last time Delaware won six straight league games was in 2003.

- Points have been prevalent for the Blue Hens during their win streak, averaging 34.0 ppg during that stretch. Through nine games in 2018, Delaware has equaled or surpassed more total points (263) than they have in 2017 (233 - 11 games), 2016 (242 - 11 games), 2015 (164 - 11 games) and 2014 (261 - 11 games).

- After never having met before 2016, the Seawolves and Blue Hens square off for the third time in three seasons. The two teams have split the previous two meetings, including a thrilling 24-20 win by Delaware on Long Island last year.

- While it's only the third all-time meeting between the two schools, Coach Rocco has been facing Coach Priore and the Seawolves for 10 years dating back to his days at Liberty. Rocco is 4-3 all-time against Stony Brook.

- The win at Albany marked the second straight game-winning drive for redshirt junior Pat Kehoe. In the past two wins, Kehoe is 9-of-11 passing in the final two minutes.

- Kehoe is just 162 yards away from reaching 2,000 on the year. He would be just the 13th player in Delaware history to reach that milestone.

- With his seven tackle, two turnover performance against Albany, senior Charles Bell moved up to 16th all-time in tackles with 306 for his illustrious career.

- Senior Kani Kane continued to rumble along, scoring a touchdown for the fifth straight game last week at Albany, with his second being the game-winner with 30 seconds remaining. He currently leads the CAA and ranks 16th in the country with 10 TDs on the year.

- Senior Troy Reeder enters today's contest with 96 tackles on the year. He needs just four to become the first Blue Hen since Patrick Callaway in 2013 (120). He would be just the third player in the past 10 years to reach that number, joining Callaway and Paul Worrlow (did it twice).

- After outscoring Towson by a tally of 34-18 in the second half of last Saturday's win, the Blue Hens pushed their second half scoring totals to 143 to the opposition's 86. Delaware is averaging nearly 16 points per game in the second half alone.

ROAD WARRIORS

With the win at Albany, the Blue Hens won their third consecutive road game, marking the first time since 2003 that has been done. A win at Stony Brook would mark the first time since 2000 that Delaware has won four straight road games.

ROLLIN' 7s

While Delaware certainly has plenty more opportunities to extend its win total, the Blue Hens did accomplish something that hadn't been done since 2010 and 2011, posting back-to-back seasons of at least seven wins or more.

STRENGTH VS. STRENGTH

Delaware enters today's contest as one of the best teams in the country at punching it into the endzone when opportunity knocks. The Blue Hens rank eighth in the nation and second in the league at red zone offense, scoring on 32 of their 35 trips for a 91-percent clip.

Stony Brook comes in as the league's top red zone defense and ranks fifth in the country, holding its opposition to just 63-percent scoring rate in the redzone.

WE DON'T NEED NO TURNOVER CHAIN

The Blue Hens will look to continue their success in turning over the opposition after their three takeaway performance against Albany. Since Coach Rocco's arrival last fall, Delaware is 10-2 when forcing at least two turnovers in a game.

With 14 INTs on the year, Delaware ranks second in the league and sixth in the country, led by three from Preseason All-American Nasir Adderley. Even more impressive is the fact that NINE different players have at least one INT this year for the Blue Hens.

2018 TEAM COMPARISON

GOING BIG FLY

Delaware enters today's game leading the CAA and ranked 12th in the country in passing yards per completion (15.2).

Leading the way has been the connection between QB-turned-WR Joe Walker and Pat Kehoe. The duo has connected on six pass plays of 40+ yards already this year. As a TEAM, the Blue Hens had just three such passes all of last year.

THE BUCK STOPS HERE

Ray "Buck" Jones enters today's contest just four tackles away from 200 for his career. He would become the 49th player in program history to reach that plateau.

Jones would join teammates Charles Bell (306 - 16th all-time), Troy Reeder (248 - 27th- all-time), Nasir Adderley (233 - 32nd all-time).

FREQUENT VISITORS

Seniors Charles Scarff and Vinny Papale have each scored at least one touchdown in four of the past five games.

Scarff's seven TD catches this year rank second all-time by a Delaware tight end. He is currently tied with Nick Boyle (7 in 2014) and is one behind Pete Johnson (8 in 1971).

His 11 career TDs rank second all-time, only behind Boyle's 12 (2011-14).

2018 MEDIA INFORMATION

INTERVIEWS WITH COACH ROCCO

Media wishing to interview Coach Danny Rocco must notify the University of Delaware Athletics Communications Office.

WEEKLY PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews must be requested through the University of Delaware Athletics Communications Office, and must be arranged at least 24 hours in advance. Phone interviews are available by contacting the Athletics Communications Office. Please coordinate all requests with the University of Delaware Athletics Communications Office.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Delaware practices are open to the media, but please call in advance if you plan on attending. Practices during the week (Tues.-Thurs.) are usually from 4 pm to 6:30 p.m. Players and coaches will usually be available after practice. There is no media availability on Friday or pregame Saturday. Please contact the University of Delaware Athletics Communications Office for the schedule.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

Post-game interviews for home games will be conducted in the media room of the Bob Carpenter Center. Coach Rocco and requested players will be available after a brief cooling off period. Interviews following road games will be subject to the policies set forth by the home teams and will run through Assistant AD for Athletic Communications Scott Day.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Arrangements for media credentials for University of Delaware's home football games in 2018 must be made through the University of Delaware Athletics Communications Office. Requests by accredited media members should be made in writing and submitted on company letterhead to Scott Day.

Priority of issuance of credentials will be given to daily newspapers and television stations which cover Delaware football on a regular basis.

Credentials must be requested at least 48 hours prior to requested game.

MEDIA WILL CALL

A will call window will be operated on game days at Delaware Stadium box office for the distribution of credentials which have not been mailed. Proper ID will be required.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

A media packet will be distributed to your seat prior to kickoff. It will include a game program, flipcard and game notes for each team and the CAA. If you are missing any material, please contact a member of the University of Delaware Athletics Communications Office.

Quarterly statistics and play-by-play will be distributed during the game. Final statistics and booklets will be distributed as soon as possible following the game.

THE STORIES BEHIND THE UNIFORMS

IT'S A FAMILY THING

The Reederers have been synonymous with Blue Hen football since the 1980s when Dan Reeder roamed the backfield at the University of Delaware before moving on to an NFL career. Now, Dan's two sons, Colby and Troy have become All-Conference LBs for the Blue Hens.

OH BROTHER

Delaware will be the one of the only two FCS programs in the country with three sets of brothers on the roster this fall. Along with the Reeder brothers, Pat and MJ Kehoe will be critical pieces of the Blue Hens offense, while Brandon and Brian Dennis will both be defensive backs this fall.

GETTING DOWN TO BUSINESS, LITERALLY

Fifth-year senior QB J.P. Caruso spent three weeks this summer interning at a business firm in New York City to gain real life experience for his post-graduate plans.

IT'S ALL IN THE LEG

It's no surprise that All-CAA kicker Frank Raggo has a soccer background. That soccer background runs back to one of the most historical players in soccer history, Pele. Raggo's grandfather, Julio Mazzei, served as the head coach of the New York Cosmos of the NASL and played a major role in bringing Pele to play in the U.S.

QUITE A LINEAGE

Nasir Adderley made highlight reel play after highlight reel play in 2017. He's one of only two players in all of FCS that had 75 tackles and five INTs last year. That standout play is nothing new to the Adderley name. His cousin is Herb Adderley, NFL Hall of Famer, three-time Super Bowl Champion and all-pro defensive back for the Packers and Cowboys. His grandfather, Nelson, played at Ohio State and later played in the CFL.

HE REALLY IS A MAN OF MANY TALENTS

Jamie Jarmon is not only Delaware's version of a swiss army knife on the offensive side, but he's somewhat of a swiss army knife off the football field as well. His athleticism was on display throughout his youth, which led him to a three-year minor league baseball career after he was drafted in the second round of the MLB Draft in 2012. Outside of his athletic prowess, he spent several years serving as a volunteer firefighter.

I'LL TAKE THAT GUY ON MY JEOPARDY TEAM

Redshirt junior Collin Wallish spent most of the spring transitioning into the starting center role for the Blue Hens offensive line. It's no easy task, but if anyone could do it, it was Wallish, who holds a near perfect 4.0 grade point average while studying engineering at the University of Delaware.

TICKLING THE IVORIES

Junior WR and Delaware native Chichi Amachi skills aren't limited to the gridiron as the William Penn High School graduate is also a pianist.

A MAN'S BEST FRIEND

Other than his family, it's tough to find anything that head coach Danny Rocco loves more than his nearly 200-pound St. Bernard, Max.

BY GOD, THAT'S KRETKOWSKI'S MUSIC

If one were to talk to James Kretkowski without seeing him, you may not get the impression of a big, intimidating figure. However, his 6-6, 305-pound frame matched with his long hair and impressive beard make him a prime candidate for professional wrestling, which is exactly what the Oceanside, N.Y. native hopes to pursue after his collegiate playing career is over.

#BLUEHENS

CHAIN MOVER

Senior WR Vinny Papale has been huge for the Blue Hens this fall with 11 of his 30 catches coming on third down to move the chains for the Delaware offense.

LEGS OF MASS DESTRUCTION

After his booting his ninth punt of the year of over 50+ yards against Albany, Nick Pritchard moved into the top spot in the CAA, averaging 42.5 yards per punt, that mark puts him 16th in the country. Pritchard's career punt average of 41.6 currently ranks second all-time to only Eric Enderson at 43.6.

Classmate Jake Roth leads the CAA and ranks in the top-10 nationally with 33 touchbacks this fall. He currently has 70 for his career. Both the 33 this year and the 70 for his career are program records. He has 70 career touchbacks in 147 kickoffs (a .476 success rate).

STOP WHERE YOU ARE

Delaware's defense has flexed its muscles when its back has been up against the wall this year. In the opponents' 28 trips to the red zone this fall, only 14 TDs (50-percent) have been scored on those trips.

Nine of those have resulted in FGs and five have been thwarted for no points.

CONNECT FOUR

Delaware is one of only three schools that have competed at the FCS level since 1990 and have at least four wins in every season. The Blue Hens are joined by Montana and Northern Iowa.

ACCOLADES APLENTY

Last week, redshirt junior QB Pat Kehoe was named CAA Offensive Player of the Week award marking the third straight week that a Blue Hen had taken at least one weekly award home. Kehoe was the first Delaware QB since Tim Donnelly in 2011 to win the honor.

Earlier this year, senior Troy Reeder won back-to-back defensive player of the week honors, while classmate Nasir Adderley was named the CAA Special Teams player of the week after his 92-yard TD return against UNH.

THEY TRULY ARE SPECIAL

Frank Raggo has now made 39 career field goals, which is tied for second all-time in program history behind only 41 by Jon Striefsky (2005-09). He has now made 101 career PATs and is just ninth UD player to hit 100+. He has 218 career points kicking, which ranks fourth all-time. Raggo's next FG of 40+ would set the career record, which he is currently tied with Sean Baner at 10.

CENTURY 23

In the win over Richmond on October 6, Head Coach Danny Rocco record his 100th career victory. He is only the 23rd active FCS head coach with 100 or more career wins. Five of those 23 coaches reside in the CAA. (Laycock, McDonnell, Gattuso, Priore).

THE HEN-FL

The Blue Hens have six former student-athletes earn spots on NFL rosters this year: Bilal Nichols (Bears), Joe Flacco (Ravens), Nick Boyle (Ravens), Mike Adams (Panthers), Paul Worrlow (Eagles) and Zach Kerr (Broncos). It's tied for the second-highest total among all FCS programs.

DELAWARE OVERTIME GAMES

CAA FOOTBALL MEDIA SERVICES

CAA Football coaches will hold a weekly media teleconference beginning Monday, Aug. 27, 2018. The calls will continue each Monday throughout the 2018 regular season and postseason. The scheduled calls will come to an end when the final CAA Football team completes its season in the 2018 NCAA Division I Football Championship. Coaches and a selected student-athlete will participate in the postseason calls while their teams are still alive in championship play.

The teleconference will open with the release of the CAA Football weekly awards. CAA Football coaches will be available to answer questions beginning at 10:10 a.m. (ET). The weekly lineup is listed below.

Media representatives wishing to participate in the teleconference should call 855-717-7669 and use the password CAA Football. For more information, contact Rob Washburn at the CAA Football office (rwashburn@caasports.com). Each teleconference will be streamed for free live online at CAA.tv. Any media members or fans tweeting observations from the teleconference are encouraged to use the official CAA Football hashtag #CAAFB. Audio files from each of the weekly teleconferences will be archived on the CAA Football Pressbox on the same Monday afternoon.

HEAD COACH
SECOND SEASON
WAKE FOREST, 1984

University of Delaware Director of Athletics and Recreation Services Chrissi Rawak announced on Dec. 14, 2016 that Danny Rocco, who enjoyed outstanding success at NCAA Division I FCS members Liberty University and University of Richmond, had been selected to lead the Blue Hens as head football coach.

Rocco, 58, who has three 10-win seasons and three NCAA FCS Playoff appearances under his belt, became just the 23rd head coach in Delaware's 125-season history and just the sixth head coach since 1940.

A veteran of 33 seasons as a football coach, including the last 12 as a head coach at the NCAA Division I FCS level, Rocco has found nothing but success. That success followed him to Delaware in his first season.

Rocco led the Blue Hens to a 7-4 record in 2017, a three-win improvement from the previous year and on the brink of the program's first FCS playoff berth since 2010.

In his 12 seasons as a head coach, he has never posted a losing season and owns a career record of 97-46 (.678).

A native of Huntingdon, Pa. and a 1984 graduate of Wake Forest University, Rocco inherits a program that has won six national championships, finished as national runner-up five times, made 20 NCAA Tournament appearances, and captured 16 conference championships.

Rocco transformed the Spiders back into a national power during his five-year tenure. He inherited a team that went 3-8 in 2011 and led the 2012 squad to a five-win turnaround with an 8-3 overall record and a share of the CAA title.

He went on to lead Richmond to a five-year record of 43-22 that included three consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, including a berth in the semifinals in 2015 and a trip to the quarterfinals this past season.

He was named the Touchdown Club of Richmond Coach of the Year in both 2012 and 2015 and was a finalist for the FCS Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year award both of those seasons.

During his 12 seasons as a head coach (five at Richmond, six at Liberty), he has been a National Coach of the Year Finalist five times, and has won six conference championships and four conference Coach of the Year honors.

He has coached 167 all-conference honorees and 32 student-athletes who garnered All-American honors, including two Delaware student-athletes in 2017 - Brody Kern and Bilal Nichols.

Fourteen different players under Rocco's tutelage have gone on to earn professional contracts and his teams have finished in the final FCS Top-25 poll in eight of the past 10 seasons, including finishing No. 3 in 2015.

During his time with the Spiders, Richmond defeated 14 nationally-ranked opponents, including a victory over then-No.3 James Madison during the 2015 season when ESPN's College GameDay was in Harrisonburg, Va.

Rocco is only the third man in Colonial Athletic Association Football (formerly Yankee Conference and Atlantic 10 Conference) history to serve as head coach at two different institutions. Jim Reid coached at former CAA member Massachusetts in 1986-91 before moving on to serve as head coach at Richmond in 1995-2003. Current University of Michigan defensive coordinator Don Brown was head coach at Northeastern in 2000-03 before moving over to UMass in 2004-08.

At Liberty, Rocco made an immediate impact, taking over a program that had gone 1-10 in 2005 and building the Flames into a Big South Conference power. He led his first team to a 6-5 record (the largest turnaround of any FCS program that season) and guided the squad to Big South Conference Championship four times in six seasons.

He posted an overall record of 47-20 (26-5 in league play) and was named Big South Coach of the Year four times. He would go on to be named a finalist for the national Eddie Robinson Award and Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award in each of the final three seasons in Lynchburg. Liberty finished the last four years ranked inside the Top 25 in both major FCS polls.

Before becoming a head coach, Rocco spent 23 seasons at the NCAA Division I Bowl Subdivision (FBS) and National Football League levels.

Prior to his arrival at Liberty, Rocco spent the previous five seasons at Virginia. He was a part of four consecutive bowl appearances for the Cavaliers, including back-to-back Continental Tire Bowl victories in 2002 and 2003. During his time in Charlottesville, UVA piled up 37 wins with Rocco serving as the associate head coach and linebackers coach under Al Groh.

In addition to his coaching duties with the Cavaliers, he also served as the recruiting coordinator during his first two years in Charlottesville. His 2002 recruiting class was ranked in the top 10 in the nation by many of the major recruiting services, including a fifth-place ranking by ESPN.

Prior to UVA, Rocco spent the 2000 season alongside Groh as an assistant linebacker and special teams coach with the New York Jets. Before joining the Jets, he was the linebackers coach at Maryland during the 1998 and 1999 campaigns.

Prior to his time in College Park, Rocco spent four seasons at the University of Texas, where the Longhorns captured three straight conference titles, including winning the inaugural Big 12 Championship in 1996 and earning three consecutive trips to bowl games (Sun Bowl, Sugar Bowl and Fiesta Bowl).

Before Tom Coughlin was a Super Bowl winning coach with the New York Giants, he was Rocco's mentor at Boston College for two seasons. As a defensive assistant, Rocco was a part of the revitalization of the Golden Eagles, returning the program to the national stage as participants in the 1992 Hall of Fame Bowl and the 1993 Carquest Bowl.

Rocco also spent the 1987 season as the linebackers coach at Colorado under Bill McCartney and three seasons as the linebackers coach at Tulsa.

The start of Rocco's coaching career came at his alma mater, Wake Forest, where he spent three seasons in total, two as a graduate assistant and one as the defensive line coach during the 1986 season.

As a player, Rocco's collegiate career began at Penn State, where he earned two varsity letters and competed in the 1979 Liberty Bowl and the 1980 Fiesta Bowl before transferring to Wake Forest. While in Winston-Salem, he was a two-year starter and senior captain for Groh.

He was no stranger to coaching after growing up in a football family. His father, Frank Rocco, Sr., served as an assistant coach at Penn State before joining the Liberty staff in 2000. Frank Rocco, Jr., also joined the Flames staff in 2000 as a wide receivers and quarterbacks coach and received a promotion to offensive coordinator prior to his departure in 2003. Frank, and brother, Dave, are both currently coaching at the high school level in Virginia.

In January of 2016, Rocco was elected to the American Football Coaches Association Board of Trustees.

Rocco is married to the former Julie Mills and they are the parents of two children, David and Amy. David currently serves as offensive coordinator at Western Illinois University.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

UD Athletics Hall of Famer; Former NFL Most Valuable Player; and current CBS TV NFL Analyst Rich Gannon

"I am excited for the future of Delaware Football as AD Chrissi Rawak hired a winner in Danny Rocco. Coach Rocco is a man of great character and integrity and he will bring tremendous leadership and toughness to our program. As an assistant, he was fortunate to work under some of the best coaches in the business, coaches like Bill McCartney, Al Groh, and Tom Coughlin. As a head coach, he took over a Liberty team that went 1-10 the year before he arrived and he quickly turned them into a winner in the Big South Conference. He did the same at Richmond, qualifying for the FCS playoffs in each of the last three seasons. I am convinced that Coach Rocco will continue to build on the great tradition and legacy of Delaware Football!"

UD Athletics Hall of Famer; Former NFL Quarterback Scott Brunner

"Danny Rocco is a proven leader and Delaware is lucky to have someone with his pedigree, character, and passion as our head coach. I had the opportunity to meet Coach Rocco and came away extremely impressed with his vision of the current state of college football and his understanding of how to build a winning program. He will recruit the best athletes and coaches, he will prepare them meticulously, and he will inspire all around him to maximize their ability. I can assure everyone that Danny Rocco has earned the utmost respect from some of the most renowned professionals at the highest levels of football. Go Hens."

Former New York Giants Head Coach and Super Bowl Champion Tom Coughlin

"When he was with me at Boston College, he was an outstanding young football coach, and he had his blinders on from Day One: Family, Religion and Football. He has great people skills, and as a result, has always been an outstanding recruiter and football coach, and the players enjoy playing for him."
